

Rotary Club of San Marino Centennial Clock

Dedication – July 4, 2005

You are invited to attend the Centennial Clock dedication ceremony on July 4, 2005, at 10:15 a.m., at the Clock site on the north side of Huntington Drive across from City Hall.

The ceremony will include the public unveiling of the Donor Recognition plaque and the placement of the Time Capsule. Leaders from Rotary, the City, and community organizations will participate. This will be a historic event for San Marino.

You are encouraged to attend with family and friends.

(Please mark you calendar now for this event on July 4, and watch for announcements in the San Marino Tribune.)
